IANA Stewardship Update

Nurani Nimpuno, CRISP Team, RIPE 72, 24 May 2016

Where Are We Now?

One small step…
One giant leap…

The IANA Stewardship Package submitted!

- The ICANN 55 meeting saw agreement on the final element of the IANA stewardship "package", the CCWG recommendations on ICANN accountability

- Culmination of the Internet's largest single, global, multistakeholder policy development project!

Challenges Along the Way

- Time
  - Very aggressive timelines
  - Other communities needed more time
- Other IANA communities
  - The NTIA required one single unified proposal
    - Different challenges for other communities
    - ICANN Accountability
- ICANN / NTIA / US gov
  - SLA negotiations with ICANN
  - Speculations about NTIA position, other US political actors

CRISP Team Priorities

- Committed to the success of this transition

- Transparency throughout the discussion process

- Respect for principles agreed to in the CRISP proposal
Work in the CRISP Team

- Liaising with other parties (ICG, the RIRs)

- Ensure CRISP proposal integrity

- Developing solution to intellectual property (IPR) issues

- Review of SLA drafts

- CRISP team work now finalised
  - Work handed over to RIRs for implementation!

Where Are We Now?

- On 10 March, following ICANN 55 Meeting, the "package" was sent to NTIA, which included:
  - ICG proposal on IANA stewardship
  - Recommendations on ICANN accountability

- The NTIA (and the U.S. Government) will take up to 30 legislative days to consider the package
  - Hoping for a decision in the next month or so…
